

bring the bounty of the bay to the table, locally owned shops and town squares filled with entertainment throughout the summer.

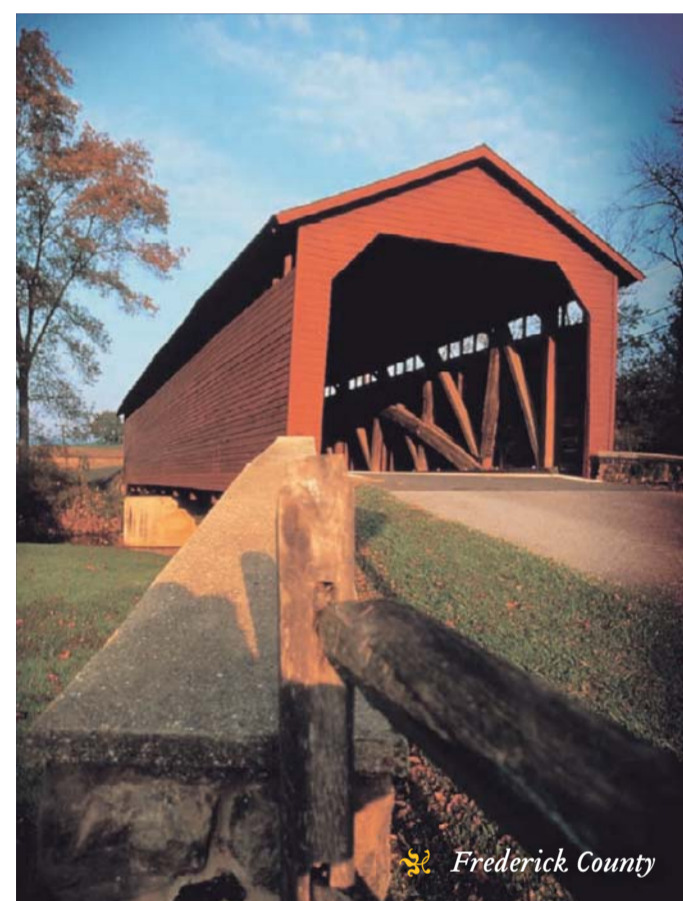

In the "Hamptons of the Chesapeake," quaint villages and picturesque hamlets rest near each other, so that a short drive brings you to new experiences in small-town traditions and natural beauty.

In the heart of Chesapeake country is Dorchester County, with a unique charm that dates back hundreds of years. The bayside community features a Main Street filled with restaurants and shops—some of which have been featured by Tom Brokaw—and makes for a great getaway.

Embraced by miles of scenic Chesapeake Bay waterways and graced with acres of pastoral landscape, Queen Anne's County offers a relaxing environment for shopping, dining or for watching the world go by.

Maryland's only seaside county offers a wealth of vacation options from the fun and the sun of Ocean City to the challenges of some of the country's finest golf courses; and then there's the opportunity to explore historic towns or explore one of the nation's unique scenic rivers.

To plan your getaway and to get a free travel kit, including a Maryland Passport discount travel card worth more than $3,500 in savings, check out visitmaryland.org.
